4. SOURCES OF INCOME

a. List major source(s) of private income of more than $200 for yourself and your spouse. For purposes of this provision, income shall be reported for the calendar year in which it is received. "Major sources of private income" include, but are not limited to, offices, directorships and salaried employment. No dollar amounts need to be stated; however, you must list the name and address of each source of income, except for sources of income received from a security listed on the New York Stock Exchange, American Stock Exchange or NASDAQ or from income received from investments with a federal or state chartered bank. You may list only the name of the entity. For income derived from the ownership of a business enterprise's securities, you may list the name of the enterprise in lieu of any investment brokerage firm or other fiduciary that may possess or manage the securities on your or your spouse's behalf. For income derived from a mutual fund, you may list the name of the mutual fund in lieu of the business enterprise securities owned by the mutual fund. You are not required to disclose any client list or customer list, or to list the address of any investment property.
